Château de Rosay

“ The beautiful old-fashioned kitchen ”

Listed today as a Historic Monument, this authentic 17th century home houses a literary salon once frequented by Flaubert, Mérimée, and the Goncourt brothers. Its beautiful antique kitchen, its series of intimate sitting rooms, and its wood-paneled library will welcome your teams to its literature theme! Perfect for relaxing, going green, and combining work and leisure! You will instantly feel at home.

Anne-Laure & Rémy

Welcome to our house with its idyllic, rural and fairy-tale settings which echo back to literature. Make yourself at home and escape the hustle and bustle in our unspoilt green surroundings, perfect for get-togethers as well as moments of reflection. We're waiting for you to simply enjoy delightful moments of gastronomy and warm friendship. See you very soon...

Emmanuel

The delicious local Norman flavours fill the kitchen. Auge Valley chicken, fried St. Jacques walnut with lentil cream, Tatin cream tart, strawberry shortbread with local crème fraîche, Normandy cake with apples and calvados, Neufchatel, camembert, cider, and apple juice! Mmm!
